Background:

The Rural Washington Loan Fund (RWLF) is a federally-funded loan program administered by the Department of Community, Trade and Economic Development (DCTED). In order to receive a loan, the project must: result in the creation of employment opportunities, the maintenance of threatened employment or development or expansion of business ownership by minorities and women; conform with federal rules and regulations governing the spending of federal community block grants; be of public benefit and for a public purpose; probably be successful; and need the loan in order to be completed. Except those made to women and minority owned businesses, 80 percent of the appropriated funds are to be made available for projects in distressed areas.

Sixty-six projects in 13 counties have received over $16 million in public moneys leading to public development investment of over $136 million. Federal requirements mandate that earnings on federal moneys remain with the program.
